JFK to Seek Treaty Support From Nation

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy goes before the nation tonight to whip up support for a nuclear test ban treaty dramatically initiated Thursday in Moscow and heralded as a major break in the cold war.

The presidential message at 7 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time on radio and television will be part of an administration campaign to convince critics the pact—ending testing in outer space, in the atmosphere and under water—will not endanger U.S. security.

To become effective the U.S., Soviet and British agreement must be ratified by a two-thirds vote of the Senate, and the measure of public support for the treaty may tip the scales there.

The agreement climaxes years of on-and-off negotiations—spattered at times by the thunder of nuclear tests—almost as old as the nuclear age itself.

The White House declared that the President was gratified by the agreement in which the three powers also affirmed their determination to strive for a complete test ban and implied they will give no nuclear aid to nations that will not go along with the pact.

The three foreign ministers—American Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Britain's Lord Home and the Soviet Union's Andrei A. Gromyko—will sign the treaty in Moscow in "the near future," a communiqué said.

Immediate congressional reaction to the agreement was generally favorable and the administration is confident it can win the Senate's approval.

Rusk has already done the early spadework on Capitol Hill. He spent long hours earlier in the week briefing the Senate's Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees, and the Senate House Atomic Energy Committee.

The administration optimism on the likelihood of ratification hinges partly on a belief the Joint Chiefs of Staff, whose views count heavily in Congress, will support the agreement.

With two notable exceptions, leaders of West and East hailed the initialing of the agreement as the first step on the road to peace.

Lord Home called the agreement "the first of any substance which the West has been able to make with the Russians" since the Austrian Treaty of 1955.

And from Japan, the only country seared by wartime atom bombs, the chief Japanese Cabinet secretary, Yasumi Kirogane, said the partial ban could be a stepping stone to total elimination of nuclear testing.

But in Paris, President Charles de Gaulle's government reaffirmed that it would not be bound by the agreement in its efforts to make France an independent nuclear power.

Communication Satellites Sent Into Orbit

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Syncom 2 communications satellite rocketed into orbit today and hurtled upward toward a point 22,300 miles high where a small motor was to kick it onto a path where it seemingly would hover motionless in the sky.

The motor was set to fire about 3 p.m. EST.

Ratification of Ban Has Rough Road

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration leaders have started Senate machinery rolling along what may be a twisting road to ratification of the nuclear test ban treaty.

Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman, who initiated the agreement Thursday in Moscow with Soviet and British negotiators, starts the congressional selling job Monday when he reports to three committees, possibly accompanied by Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

To speed things up, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which has jurisdiction over treaties, invited members of the Senate Armed Services Committee and the Senate House Atomic Energy Committee to join in hearing Harriman's report behind closed doors.

And Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., of the Armed Services Committee, said that when the signed treaty is sent to the Senate for the required two-thirds approval he would not object to the three committees considering it jointly.

Russell added that the Joint Chiefs of Staff will be asked to testify. They are expected to support the ban on tests in the atmosphere, outer space and under water. Rusk already has tried to smooth the way for the treaty by showing all three committees copies of the proposed agreement.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana predicted ratification, although he said there will be opposition.

"It is a reasonable agreement with no side issue attached," he said. "Prospects for its ratification are growing steadily."

Republicans generally took a more cautious approach.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., said he would like to see an effective test ban treaty ratified and "it is incumbent on the administration to give all members the fullest information on this before the debate begins."

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois did not indicate what his position will be, saying only that the treaty will evoke considerable debate in the Senate.

ICC to Make Effort to Settle Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission promised Congress today his agency would make every effort to "meet the heavy responsibility" of handling the explosive railroad work rules issue.

With the threat of a nationwide strike postponed for 30 days, ICC Chairman Lawrence K. Washburn went before the House Commerce Committee and said: "Although we do not seek delegation of the task, we are prepared to accept the responsibility."

President Kennedy proposed Monday that Congress pass legislation to avert a strike by turning the work rules dispute over to the ICC for two years.

Railroad unions are critical of the Kennedy formula but management has endorsed it although suggesting some revisions.

Reporting this today, officials said they expect the American protest to be lodged by the Swiss in Havana.

Dardanelle to Get Hospital

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The State Board of Health has approved Dardanelle as the site of a 28-bed hospital, clearing the way for federal aid in financing the structure. A $175,000 bond issue was approved recently by Dardanelle mayor to help pay for the hospital.

Leave of Absence

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The University of Arkansas Medical Center has given Dr. James S. Dinning, head of the Department of Biochemistry, a leave of absence to go to Bangkok, Thailand to assist in the development of the nation's medical education program. The Rockefeller Foundation is financing the project. Dinning will leave in September and stay about two years.

Report Shows Cost of Living Creeping Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—Living costs in June rose four-tenths of one per cent to a record high, the Labor Department reported today.

The rise was the highest for a single month since September of last year when an increase of six-tenths of one per cent was recorded.

The June index at 106.6 compared to the 100 base for 1957-59, and was 1.2 per cent above last year.

The figures mean it cost $10.66 to buy in June the same living cost items which could be bought for $10 in the 1957-59 period.

Arnold Chase, assistant commissioner for prices and living conditions in the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said the June increase was due primarily to higher prices for food, housing and medical care.

In addition, sales taxes were increased in several cities.

Sharply higher sugar prices were a major cause of an advance in average food prices in June. Sugar prices rose by 32 per cent and were 44 per cent above a year earlier.

On the whole, food prices averaged 1.4 per cent higher than a year ago. Restaurant meals were 2.2 per cent higher.

Cold Rain Scattered Over State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cloudiness and scattered showers dropped Arkansas temperatures to a more bearable level Thursday and were expected to shield the state from the hot weather again today.

Northwest Arkansas again was the hot spot for the state Thursday afternoon, but high temperatures generally were 8 to 10 degrees lower than Wednesday.

Fort Smith was tops with a 95-degree reading, compared to a blistering 103 Wednesday. Pine Bluff was pleasant with an 81 and Batesville reported an 83.

Shower activity was light and was confined mainly to east-central Arkansas, where Brinkley got 26 of an inch and Clarendon 14 of an inch.

Overnight low temperatures reported around the state this morning ranged from the low 60s to the low 70s. The record low, as reported at Little Rock in 1911, is 64, but Batesville reported a 64 and Gilbert a 60 this morning.

The forecast called for partly cloudy to cloudy and mild this afternoon and tonight with scattered showers and thundershowers this afternoon and mainly east to night. Saturday's weather was expected to be partly cloudy and a little warmer with scattered mostly afternoon thundershowers.

Highs of 78 to 90 were predicted for this afternoon. Lows tonight were expected to range from 64 to 74 and highs of 85 to 95 were expected Saturday.

Temperatures during the next five days were expected to average two to four degrees below normal with minor day to day changes. Normal highs range from near 90 north to 95 south. Normal lows range 67 to 72.

Thundershowers mainly at the end of the week and again early next week were expected to produce one-half to one inch of rainfall, mostly in southern Arkansas. About 50 per cent of northern Arkansas was expected to be sprinkled with showers during the period.

Haying conditions were expected to be poor during the next five days, with cloudy skies and occasional showers resulting in poor curing conditions. The below-normal temperatures were expected to be good news for poultry producers, who had been warned to take precautionary measures to avoid poultry loss due to heat.

FBI Arrests Man on Forgery Charge

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The U.S. Secret Service announced Thursday the arrest of Barry Carroll Bridges, 41, wanted since 1958 on a charge of forgery and uttering in Kansas City.

Leroy Lettler, special agent in charge of the Secret Service at Little Rock, said Bridges was arrested at Pine Bluff, where he had operated a service station under the assumed name of Patrick Henry Yancy Jr.

Lettler said Bridges had moved to Pine Bluff from Little Rock in March 1960. He had come to Little Rock after jumping bond in Kansas City, he said.

Ward Testifies He Knew Christine Was Having Affair With British War Minister

By HAL COOPER

LONDON (AP)—Stephen Ward testified today he has "a pretty shrewd idea" that Christine Keeler was having sexual relations with War Minister John D. Profumo in Ward's apartment in 1961.

The society osteopath, 50, told the jury in his trial on charges of procuring and living off the proceeds of prostitution that he "had no direct knowledge."

Under cross-examination on the fifth day of the trial, Ward told his version of Profumo's first meeting with Christine at a swimming pool on the Cliveden estate of Viscount Astor.

Christine testified she was naked when Profumo and several other Astor house guests found her.

Ward said Miss Keeler's brief swimming suit had started to come off "and we were fooling about." But he denied that she was nude.

Profumo resigned in disgrace from the government and the House of Commons last month after admitting he had had an affair with Christine. The scandal nearly drove Prime Minister Macmillan from office.

Ward agreed later he learned that Christine was seeing Profumo at his London flat.

Ward said he did not believe Miss Keeler ever had intercourse with Soviet naval Capt. Eugene Ivanov, whom she was seeing at the same time she was seeing Profumo, or if she did "there could have been only one isolated incident."

Christine's simultaneous relationship with Profumo and Ivanov, who was an assistant Soviet naval attaché, laid a new security scandal on the door of the Conservative government. This aspect of the case is under investigation.

Ward testified he had introduced Christine and Marilyn (Mandy) Rice-Davies to Douglas Fairbanks Jr. because he thought Fairbanks could help them get in the movies.

Fairbanks earlier this week denied the testimony of Mandy, 18, that he had sexual relations with her. Fairbanks said she and Christine asked him to get them a screen test but he was no longer producing television films and could not arrange it.

Ward admitted introducing the two girls to Viscount Astor also and other friends of his but denied his purpose was for the girls to have sexual relations with the men.

Ward testified that Christine had a strong sexual attraction for him when they first met five years ago—when she was 16—but said his feeling turned to one of platonic friendship. But he said there was nothing platonic about his fleeing from Mandy.

Dardanelle to Get Station

DARDANELLE, Ark. (AP)—Central Arkansas Broadcasting Co., Inc., of Dardanelle has received a Federal Communications Commission license to operate an AM radio station at 980 kilocycles.

The station had applied for both an AM and an FM license, but was informed by Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., that the FCC had frozen all FM licenses during an intensive study.

The station, to operate on 1,000 watts in daytime hours, will be Woll County's first. The company plans to begin operation within 90 days.

Alaska Has Shortage of Salmon

By WARD SIMS

NAKNEK, Alaska (AP)—An aura of helpless insecurity, tinged with anger, settled over Alaska's Bristol Bay area today in the wake of the worst salmon season ever for the bay's rich red salmon fishery.

In normal years, herds of red salmon, a fish highly prized by the canning industry, enter the bay in early July en route to spawning streams.

This year, the red run, for some as-yet-unexplained reason, was a mere trickle.

It left the some 3,500 persons of the area, whose living is tied primarily to the red salmon, on the brink of poverty, with a harsh Alaskan winter coming on.

The state and its congressional delegation have asked President Kennedy to declare the Bristol Bay a disaster area.

The total 1963 American catch on the bay, an arm of the Bering Sea 350 miles southeast of Anchorage, was only an estimated 2.5 million reds, compared with a catch of 2.9 million in 1958, the worst previous year on record.

The Bristol Bay red run produced 203,700 cases of canned salmon this year, compared with 926,441 cases in 1961, the top pack in the last 10 years on the bay.

An important question mark in the failure of this year's Bristol Bay run, to fishermen and to state officials alike, is the extent of the Japanese high seas catch.

Prohibited by the International North Pacific Fisheries Convention from high seas salmon fishing east of 175 degrees west longitude, the Japanese nevertheless take many immature Bristol Bay reds west of that abstinence line.

It has been a source of constant irritation to Bristol Bay fishermen, who are not permitted to fish for salmon outside territorial waters, and to state officials, who have placed strict restrictions on Alaskan fishermen in an effort to conserve and to perpetuate the Bristol Bay red fishery.

Earthquake in Yugoslavia Kills 1,000

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—A catastrophic earthquake struck the mountain city of Skopje at dawn today toppling tall buildings and homes and possibly killing more than 1,000 people.

Radio Belgrade said there are "thousands of injured," adding it was impossible to say how many were killed but the number "must be very great." The official news agency Tanjug put the estimated death toll over 1,000.

The radio said fires broke out in a technical school and a boys' high school.

Most of the city's population of 270,000 were caught in their beds by the thunderous quake. Many ran out of their apartments in their night clothes.

Tens of thousands stood in the rubble-filled streets, some weeping, others just staring at their former homes which had collapsed, Tanjug reported.

Skopje parks were turned into collection points for the homeless. All citizens were ordered to stay out of their homes for the next 24 hours as a safety measure.

Tanjug reported that the earthquake's center lay right in the heart of Skopje, the capital of the province of Macedonia. The downtown section was hardest hit.

The entire province of Macedonia, southeast of Belgrade, was mobilized for relief work.

Roads leading to the stricken city were jammed with trucks bringing in supplies and manpower and then turning around to evacuate the injured.

The town of Nis, northeast of Skopje, made space for 1,000 beds for the injured. Doctors were rushed in from all towns in the area.

Belgrade Radio described Skopje as a "great tragic working place."

The water supply was cut off and Yugoslav army units set up emergency distribution centers. Telephone and telegraph lines were cut and radio provided the only link with the outside world.

Tanjug said it was impossible. Continued on Page Three

Postmaster General Day Resigns

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General J. Edward Day, who left a $60,000-a-year position as a West Coast insurance executive to join President Kennedy's Cabinet, has resigned to return to private life.

The Post Office Department confirmed Thursday night that Day submitted his resignation July 19 and that President Kennedy had accepted it. A spokesman said the effective date had been left to the President's discretion.

The White House had no immediate comment.

A source close to Day said he would be succeeded by former Sen. Benjamin A. Smith II, a former Harvard roommate of the President who served two years in the Senate after Kennedy's election to the presidency.

Day, 49, will become partner in charge of the Washington law office of the Chicago firm of Sidley, Austin, Burgess and Smith.

Day was formerly an attorney with the firm, as was Adlai E. Stevenson, now U.S. ambassador to the United Nations. Later Day served as Illinois commissioner of insurance during Stevenson's term as governor.

In his letter of resignation, Day said "because of an unusual opportunity that has been offered me, I can no longer postpone my return to private life."

He will be the third member of President Kennedy's original Cabinet to leave—but the first to return to private life. Abraham Ribicoff quit as secretary of welfare and was elected senator from Connecticut, while Arthur J. Goldberg resigned as secretary of labor to accept appointment as an associate justice of the Supreme Court.

Waterspout Rips Through Lagoon
PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) - A cone of water a half-mile high whipped out of the Gulf of Mexico and cut a two-mile path through a lagoon. It ripped up fishing camps, demolished pleasure boats and temporarily stranded at least nine persons. But no injuries were reported.
Fishermen estimated the water spout - which is a tornado over water - was pushed by winds of more than 100 miles an hour when it struck Wednesday.
The main damage was done by one huge water spout, estimated by observers to be a half-mile tall and more than 200 yards at the base. But several other

Monks Build Shrine in S. Dakota

By DAN PERKES
BETHLEHEM S. D. (AP) - High on a rim of Creek Canyon in the Black Hills National Forest, lies the little town of Bethlehem.
Since 1956, Benedictine fathers and monks of Conception Abbey of Conception, Mo., have been building living quarters, repairing washed out roads and constructing a shrine at Crystal Cave.
The 180 acres of land and the cave were a gift to the monks from Louis Storm.
Father Gilbert Stack is the founder of Bethlehem, S.D.
An old mule barn was converted into living quarters for the monks.
The Shrine of the Nativity, a replica of one in the Holy Land, was built inside Crystal Cave.
"Christ was born in a stable in a cave and the Church first took hold in the Rome Catacombs during 300 years of persecution," Father Gilbert explains.
"St. Benedict, patron saint of cave explorers, lived in a cave for three years before he founded the famous order of Monte Cassino Abbey," he adds.
Two priests are permanently in residence at the shrine. They are assisted by laymen who are oblates of Conception Abbey.
During the busy summer tourist season, Father Gilbert says, additional monks are supplied and numerous laymen from the United States and Canada donate their time.
The shrine, built near the entrance, is deep enough to provide an atmosphere of warmth and serenity.
Services are held at the shrine twice each morning during the summer and on special religious days throughout the year. Special Easter and Christmas services are attended by residents throughout the Black Hills and surrounding states.
The monks must maintain their independence by some means of self-support. Father Gilbert chose to be a printer. Since he has been at Bethlehem, he has printed cards for Christmas and birthdays and offers some of them for sale to visitors.
During the yuletide season, he gets thousands of orders for Christmas cards requesting they be postmarked from Bethlehem.

Tomatoes Gross $2 Million

WARREN, Ark. (AP)—Bradley County tomato growers grossed an estimated $2,000,000 from the 1963 harvest, County Agent R. E. Hunter said Wednesday. He termed it the best county-side harvest in 41 years of production.

The estimate came from a survey of 50 growers on the last day of the harvest. There are more than 700 growers working 1,625 acres of land. Hunter placed the average gross per acre, per grower, at $1,280.

The average yield per acre was 575.5 half-bushels and the average price per half-bushel $2.25.

This compared to production of 400 half-bushels per acre last year and to the all-time high of 1950, when 440 growers crossed $2,040,000 from 1,200 acres of land.

The Hermitage market handled 508,589 bushels of tomatoes this year and the Warren market 82,875, Hunter said.

Shoe Workers Were to Return

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Employees of the International Shoe Co., plant at Batesville were to return to work today and company officials said production would resume at noon.

Seventy-two employees of the fitting department walked off their jobs Tuesday in protest of what they termed an imbalance in production volume and wages. The plant closed Wednesday when some 80 more workers joined the protest.

Clifford Lewis, chairman of Local 228 of the United Shoe Workers of America (AFL-CIO), said the employees agreed to return to work after plant officials said they would bring in a negotiator to settle the dispute.

Earthquake

to estimate the damage and this was born out by the first refugee to reach Belgrade from the historic capital of Macedonia.

He told of the most solidly built building in the city, the Yugoslav army barracks, being razed along with others.

Tanjug said the New Macedonia Hotel, packed with guests, was leveled and most of the guests were killed. But the eyewitness, Aleksander Blagojevic, said it appeared to him as he drove to the airport that only part of the hotel was damaged.

He said other hotels and many other buildings were badly damaged or destroyed.

The first shock hit with shattering force at 5:17 a.m. (11:17 p.m. EST Thursday) while most of the inhabitants were asleep. This was followed by a series of lighter shocks.

Blagojevic, a pilot for the Yugoslav Air Transport Co., told Radio Belgrade that he was dressing in his room at the Hotel Invalid, opposite the railroad station, when the quake struck.

"I saw the railroad station go down in front of my eyes," he said. "It was a terrible sight."

Leroy Lettner, special agent in charge of relief workers swarmed through the debris, Tanjug reported.

The great quake was felt in wide areas of southern Yugoslavia and as far away as Greece, but damage seemed to be confined to the Skopje area.

Tanjug reported that Skopje hospitals were badly damaged. The few wards that still can be used are crammed with injured people receiving emergency treatment.

The agency said damage in the city of 200,000 people was "without estimate."

The entire province of Macedonia, southeast of Belgrade, was mobilized for relief work. Refugees were being moved to summer villas and other buildings still standing.

The only communication with the stricken city 210 miles from Belgrade was by radio.

The first shock, described as extremely violent, reportedly hit at 4:17 a.m. (11:17 p.m. EST Thursday) while most of the inhabitants were asleep. Other shocks were felt 15 or 20 minutes later.

First reports from the quake scene said a great number of apartment houses collapsed, killing most of their inhabitants.

Classrooms at schools in the nearby towns of Pristina, Urosevac and Kosovaska Mitrovica were turned into emergency hospital wards to receive the injured from Skopje.

Thirty doctors with several ambulances were rushed from Pristina.

Fire brigades from nearby towns near the Macedonian capital raced to the quake scene.

Blood donors all over the country were called upon to report to blood banks immediately. Their blood was to be flown to Skopje.

Still Barred From Track

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)—Thomas Griffin failed Tuesday in another attempt to keep the Southern Racing Corp., from barring him from its dog racing track at West Memphis.

Crittenden County Chancellor Terry Shell granted a motion by the track for dismissal of Griffin's request for a temporary restraining order preventing his being barred.

Griffin's attorney, Cecil B. Nance, indicated he would appeal the dismissal to the Arkansas Supreme Court, which last week refused to re-instate a temporary injunction that had previously been granted.

Griffin was banned from the track Sept. 1, 1961, on order of the State Racing Commission.

Petition Approved

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—A petition was approved Wednesday by the Faulkner County Board of Education to break a recurring deadlock in voting. The Conway board voted 4-2 earlier this month to seek the additional member.

Young Private, Now a Movie Star, Used Hated Smell of Garlic to Spot the Enemy

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—All his life the young private had hated garlic.

One night a dozen years ago while on outpost duty atop a nameless ridge in Korea, he suddenly sniffed as a breeze wafted through the still blackness an odor he despised.

"I smell garlic," replied the private. "There must be an enemy patrol out there. Everything they eat is full of garlic."

They argued with him for a while, saying it was impossible for anyone to smell even garlic at that distance. Finally, as a precautionary measure they called for an artillery barrage on the dark ravine below.

"The next morning," recalled the private, now actor James Garner, "we found five men in the ravine."

Garlic no longer is a problem to Jim. Today he's enjoying the sweet smell of success as one of Hollywood's brightest new stars, after springboarding to fame in television.

Jim, currently starred with Doris Day in Universal's comedy, "The Thrill of It All," became an actor by accident.

"I didn't act until I was 25 or 26," Garner said. "I was scared to death of it."

Restless after 14 months service overseas and unable to decide on a career he reached to buy the name of producer Paul Gregory on a Los Angeles office building. Could that be the same Paul Gregory, then a soda jerk, he had known some years before?

It was. Gregory suggested Garner become an actor. Jim didn't

Fazio Team Wins Fort Smith Meet

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Professional Buzz Fazio of Detroit, Mich., teamed with Marie Rickman of Fort Smith and Mankie McClure of Tulsa Thursday night to win the pro-am division of the Arkansas Professional Bowlers Association Open tournament.

Their score was 1,930 and the amateurs won $800 each. Unlike other sports, amateurs can win money in bowling. To be a professional, one must be a member of the Professional Bowlers Association.

The second place team in the pro-am was composed of Andy Marzich of Long Beach, Calif.; Jim Holland of Tulsa and Floyd Blentinger of Fort Smith. They rolled 1,915 and the amateurs won $550 each.

In third place were pro Earl Johnson of Minneapolis, Cy Carney Jr. of Fayetteville and Joe Hoffman of North Little Rock. They rolled 1,902 and the amateurs won $425 each.

The professional division of the tournament begins today with 94 pros on the PBA tour taking part. Marzich is the leading money winner on the tour with $23,568. They'll bowl through Sunday.

2 Charged in Mail Fraud

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Two Chicago men charged with mail fraud were transferred to Little Rock by a U.S. marshal Wednesday after their arraignment before U.S. Commissioner Dean Lindsey at Batesville.

Lindsey ordered Donald Bossi Jr., 26, and Martin G. Simmons, 33, held under $10,000 bond each.

A Chicago Postal Inspector told Independence County Sheriff John C. Davis the two allegedly established false identities and addresses and obtained cards to cash $12,000 in personal checks in stores in the Chicago and Detroit areas.

Bossi and Simmons were arrested Monday after authorities at Batesville recognized one of them in a passing car.

think he was cut out for it. After a tryout, a studio drama coach agreed with Garner.

Gregory landed him a bit part in a touring company of "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial."

As one of the judges who spoke not a single line, Garner sat silently through some 512 performances.

"But the time wasn't wasted," remarked Jim. "I studied every performer's actions, learned what I could from him."

Garner next went from small to larger film roles. Then hit the big time in television in the "Maverick" series. A bit gunshy after appearing in 60 or 70 of its episodes, Jim returned to his first love—movies—and hopes to go on making pictures until he becomes too old and tired to carry the money all the way to the bank.

BROTHERHOOD AWARD—Dr. Alfred J. Marrow, above, is recipient of the 1963 Brotherhood Award of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Dr. Marrow, 1950-60 chairman of New York's Commission on Intergroup Relations, was honored for his book, "Changing Patterns in Prejudice."

Secondary Role Asked of Rocky

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Walter Stouffer Jr. of Fort Smith, the Sebastian County Republican chairman, has written Winthrop Rockefeller asking Rockefeller to take a secondary role in GOP affairs in Arkansas or "pull out of the party."

Rockefeller said he received the letter but did not intend to answer it or comment on it. He said he would continue his efforts to build up the party in the state.

He said the state GOP had "growing pains" and "unfortunate alignments" and premature declarations for possible national GOP presidential candidates.

Rockefeller's position is ticklish since his brother, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York, and Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona apparently are squaring off in a battle for the GOP presidential nomination. There is considerable Goldwater sentiment in Arkansas.

Winthrop Rockefeller said he would work hard for his brother if Nelson sought the nomination. But he said he would go along with any candidate that the state Republican delegation backed at the 1964 convention. He recently said Goldwater appeared to have the edge among Arkansas Republicans.

Rockefeller expressed confidence in the state party and said that most of the unrest is due to growing pains. He discounted a possible serious effort by the ultra-conservative John Birch Society to capture the state party. William Spicer of Fort Smith, said GOP chairman, also discounted Birch Society workings in the Arkansas GOP.

Spicer said he had heard of the letter from Stouffer to Rockefeller. He called it a personal expression by one man and not an official party expression.

Rockefeller said there is some dissatisfaction within the party, but he said it would not impair the move toward a two-party system for Arkansas, a move which he has backed since he came to the state in 1953.

YOUNG LOVE

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKIN

Dear Helen: My father is a nervous wreck from hang down two jobs—one in a factory and the other as secretary of a bowling association.

I am 12 and have two sisters, the oldest is 17, the middle one 15. Anything they do is all right with Papa but no matter what I do, it's wrong.

Tonight when washing dishes I dropped a fork and he came yelling into the kitchen, threatened to beat me and send me to bed.

My sisters make more racket than I do in the kitchen. They fight with each other something awful but all Papa says to them is, "Now, girls, you know better than to fight; say you're sorry."

Mamma is different, never fusses or interferes like Papa does with my friends; says it's my life to live and she hopes it becomes a good one.

I told her about my secret love down the street who is 17. She said it was all right to go on dreaming that he was my Prince charming, but, for practical purposes, better keep friends with the boy my age who lives next door.

My 17-year-old secret beau phoned a week ago and said that when I'm 13, he'll take me out on the town. Just recently I got my hair cut and he thinks me the cutest girl alive.

Now my mother says I'm too young to pay attention to such nonsense and to get on with the house chores. What made her change her mind? What should I do about the boy down the street? It may seem usual but I really love him. —What-to-Do

Dear What-to-Do: Like many other females, you have two problems—your father and your boy friend. Let's consider the older one first.

Since you believe your father is a nervous wreck, treat him like one. I know this is extremely difficult. Living under the same roof

Dear Helen: My two daughters-in-law waited till the afternoon before Mother's Day, then suggested they take me the following week to buy me a hat for a Mother's Day present. Weeks have passed and I'm still waiting. I don't want to be rude but I don't care for a present after Mother's Day has passed. I think it poor taste on their part. What do you think? —Mother-in-law

Dear Mother-in-law: Not so much poor taste as poor follow-up. If the original good intention is ever carried out, be gracious about accepting the gift. A new hat will be more useful in the fall than in the summer, anyway. Be pretty, not petty. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my two leaflets, "Mothers-in-law" and "Daughters-in-law."

Dear Helen: My husband wants me to give up my little girl by a previous marriage; says he just can't love the child of another man. She's a darling and I adore her but I love my husband and he me. What shall I do? Would it be wrong to let her real father take her? —Torn

Dear Torn: Of course it wouldn't be wrong if your child's real father can provide the love and security every child needs. She'd be better off with him than living with you in an atmosphere of hostility. But, if you're a real mother, it's going to be mighty hard to part with her. Brace yourself for the heartaches.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Minnow, Fish Farmers Save

LONOKE, Ark. (AP)—The state Game and Fish Commission has agreed to consider minnow farmers in the same category as any other fish farmer, an Arkansas Fish Farmers Association official said Wednesday.

The agreement ended a controversy that arose several months ago when employees of two Lonoke minnow dealers were arrested for violation of regulations involving licenses.

J. M. Malone Jr., of Lonoke, president of the association, said under the new arrangement minnow farmers will operate with a fish farmer's identification number, for which there will be no state charge.

Minnow farmers must notify the state annually that they are still in business.

Work Bill to Be First of Civil Rights

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—A controversial fair employment practices bill apparently is going to be the first civil rights measure to be acted on in the House this session.

Plans are being made to bring it to the floor before the Aug. 28 mass demonstration in Washington called by Negro civil rights leaders.

The chances are the administration's omnibus civil rights bill will still be making slow progress through committees then and congressional leaders would like to be able to show the demonstrators something more substantial in the way of action.

Pinning their hopes to the FEPC bill could be a risky gamble, however, as the measure faces heavy going. Congress has been refusing to act on fair employment bills for years.

Backers of the bill now getting the green light for floor action are counting on Republican support to put it across.

The bill came out of the House Education and Labor Committee with five of the 12 Republican members supporting it. Most of the others favored a substitute measure instead of flatly opposing the legislation.

The bill would create a five-member commission and an office of administrator. The commission would be empowered to issue orders banning racial discrimination in employment. The top substitute, offered by Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., would transfer the enforcement powers to the federal courts.

Griffin has said he will offer his version on the House floor if the bill gets there.

The normal legislative route through the House Rules Committee is considered blocked and plans now being made involve bringing the bill up on what is known as Calendar Wednesday. This is an emergency procedure under which committee chairmen can call up any of their bills blocked in the Rules Committee. It is rarely used because action taken under it must be concluded in one day and numerous opportunities for delay and obstruction are available to opponents.

Administration support for the legislation has been lukewarm.

President Kennedy endorsed it in his civil rights message to Congress last month, but did not include it in his legislative package.

On the Senate side of the Capitol, Undersecretary of Labor John F. Henning urged a labor subcommittee Wednesday to act speedily on legislation to prevent employers and unions alike from discriminating against Negroes in employment.

HAVE ARMY, WILL TRAVEL.—Trained to conduct pre-assault and distant-post assault reconnaissance in support of a landing force, members of the Marines' Force Reconnaissance Companies don't travel light. Above, a Recon Marine at Camp Geiger, N.C., leans against a man-size bag in which weapons, food and vital equipment have been tightly packed. A mixture of paratrooper, frogman and Indian scout, the Marine will jump with the bag behind "enemy" lines. Once on the ground, he will bury the parachute and proceed with the mission. Information gathered will be transmitted back by radio, also carried in the bag.

That Henry had died 15 years ago made little difference to Freda. She had eased through the period of adjustment after his death in a way that seemed indecise to her neighbors. She proceeded to ignore the fact that Henry no longer happened to be visible.

If a door slammed in the bedroom Freda would call out, "Henry, do be careful. You know how sudden noises make me jump!"

Or if a floorboard creaked in the lifetime house she would call out, "Henry, don't be kittenish. I know you're there."

At first, people who came to call were startled by Freda's idiosyncrasy.

"Would you mind not taking that chair?" she would ask. "It's Henry's favorite and he gets sullen if he can't have it." Or if friends stayed to tea Freda would set an extra cup for Henry, explaining that they needn't pass the sugar to him because he preferred lemon.

Otherwise her life was exemplary. She attended church regularly and served wholeheartedly and effectively on various committees. She was a nurse's aide at the hospital, and solicited for the Community Chest. She brought soup to the sick and solace to the sorrowing.

Most remarkable of all, she kept such close account of the stocks Henry had quite palpably left her that she doubled them in 10 years — an accomplishment which astounded the local financial wizards.

So it came to pass that the townspeople, especially the trades-

Mays' Hitting Carries Giants to Victory

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It may be too early yet to tell whether Willie Mays, admittedly a streak hitter, is on one of his patented power displays.

If he is, the San Francisco Giants may yet give Los Angeles a run for the National League pennant. Who knows? They may even duplicate last year's late season surge when they forced the Dodgers into a play-off and then beat them for the championship.

Willie, in the last five games, has cracked nine hits in 18 times at bat. Four of his hits have been home runs and he has driven in nine runs during that span. The center fielder also has been his brilliant self in the field and on the bases.

Consequently, the Giants won four of those five.

Mays crashed a home run, double and single Thursday and batted in half his team's runs in their 8-6 triumph over the New York Mets.

It was New York's 19th straight road defeat, matching the modern major league record for futility set by the Philadelphia Athletics of 1916.

The victory, third straight over the hapless Mets, boosted the Giants into third place, a half game in front of the Chicago Cubs and 7½ lengths behind the league-leading Dodgers.

Pittsburgh tripped up the Dodgers 6-2 and Cincinnati shaded the Cubs 3-2. Second-place St. Louis defeated Milwaukee 3-1 and Houston shut out Philadelphia 3-0.

In the American League, the Los Angeles Angels ended the New York Yankees' winning streak at six with a 5-0 victory. Cleveland nipped Minnesota 3-2. Kansas City blanked Boston 2-0. Chicago's White Sox downed Detroit 4-3 and Baltimore beat Washington 4-2.

Sandy Koufax, sensational Dodger southpaw, struck out 12 in six innings but the Pirates pasted his offerings for eight hits, including a three-run homer by Roberto Clemente that spelled his fourth defeat. Koufax was seeking his 17th victory.

Superb relief pitching by Tommie Sisk helped Pittsburgh salvage the last of the three-game set.

Low Burdette, traded last month to St. Louis, not only had the satisfaction of beating his old Milwaukee team but outpitched an old friend in Warren Spahn. It was the first mound meeting of the ex-roommates after an 11-year companionship on the Braves.

Burdette, 36, gave up five hits, struck out two and walked none. Spahn, 42, allowed eight hits, struck out one and walked none.

Mantle Could Be Out for Rest of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — "I don't know, Mickey doesn't know, the doctors don't know," Ralph Houk, New York Yankee manager said of the possible return of injured Mickey Mantle, troubled anew with a leg ailment. He could be out for the year.

Mantle, sidelined with a broken bone in his left foot since June 5, now is suffering from a loose cartilage in the left knee. There is no assurance he will be able to play again this season.

"The damn thing could tighten up in three days," Houk said Thursday, "or it could be a month. Or it could be longer."

Officially, his status is "indefinite."

"We don't want to minimize it (the extent of the injury)," Houk said. "We just want to take the pressure off him. We don't know when he might play."

Dr. Sidney Gaynor, the Yankee team physician, said no immediate operation is planned.

Mantle, a three-time Most Valuable Player and the Yankee team leader, broke the bone in his foot when he tangled his spikes in a wire fence in Baltimore while chasing a fly ball. Houk said it is possible that he suffered the cartilage injury at the same time.

Hope Team Blasted By Arkadelphia

Any ambitions in district play by the Hope Little League All-Stars were blasted last night by Arkadelphia to the tune of 11 to 1 in a massacre.

Hope really was never in the game and scored their only tally in the final inning after the visitors had rolled up 11 runs. The contest eliminated the locals completely.

Travis Shut Out 1-0 by Toronto

TORONTO (AP)—Toronto shut out Arkansas 1-0 Thursday night in an International League baseball game at Toronto, but the loss failed to drop the Travelers from second place in the Southern Division.

First place Indianapolis downed Buffalo 6-3 to retain the southern lead, but Rochester blasted third place Atlanta 7-2. In other league games, Columbus trounced Richmond 10-1 and Jacksonville nicked Syracuse 2-1 in 10-innings.

Both pitchers—right-hander Carl Bouldin for the Maple Leafs and Gary Kroll for the Travelers —gave up eight hits.

Toronto won the game when Tony Washington singled with one out in the eighth, stole second and went to third on a ground ball. Kroll walked Lou Jackson on purpose and Jim McKnight singled to bring in Washington.

McBride Cools Off the Yanks for Angels

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees lost a ball game. Which doesn't really hurt. They also lost a ball player which could hurt very much indeed.

That's because he's a very special ball player named Mickey Mantle, and he may be out for the season.

Immediately after the Yankees' 5-0 loss to the Los Angeles Angels Thursday, Manager Ralph Houk announced that Mantle has a loose cartilage in his left knee.

"The damn thing could tighten up in three days," Houk said. "Or it could be a month. Or it could be longer."

The Angels' Ken McBride cooled off the defending world champions in fine shape Thursday limiting them to three scattered singles in the shutout.

Second-place Chicago edged Detroit 4-3 and lopped a full game off the Yanks American League margin, which stands at a healthy eight games. Kansas City blanked Boston 2-0, Baltimore beat Washington 4-2 and Cleveland edged Minnesota 3-2 in the others.

In the National League, Pittsburgh snapped Sandy Koufax' nine-game Dodger Stadium winning streak 6-2. St. Louis knocked off Milwaukee 3-1. Cincinnati trimmed Chicago 3-2, Houston shut out Philadelphia 3-0 and San Francisco beat the New York Mets again, 8-6.

McBride needed only 96 pitches in recording his third victory of the season over the Yanks.

Nellie Fox drove in three runs with a pair of singles and scored another one to account for all the White Sox runs against Detroit. Don Wert hit a three-run homer for the losers.

John Powell had a two-run homer, John Orsino singled in two more and Robin Roberts recorded his 252nd major league victory in the Orioles' triumph over the Senators. Baltimore now has beaten Washington 11 times in 12 meetings this season.

Kansas City's surprising Athletics got only three hits off Boston's Bill Monbouquette but turned two of them into runs while Ed Rakow, Bill Fischer and John Watt blanked the Red Sox on six
